Entry Guidelines

Please take time to read through the following information before starting this project

1. Each project can be undertaken by pairs, a group, class or as a whole school.
2. All individuals working on a project must be registered pupils in a Primary or Special Needs School and between the ages of 8 and 13 (7 to 18 in Special Needs Schools). We welcome entries from Special Needs Schools, judges will take into consideration that these are Special Needs School Entries.
3. All work entered must be pupils' own but may be aided/guided by a teacher. Each entry must have the signature of a teacher or principal to attest it is the pupils' own work and has the support of the school.
4. Projects may be completed in Irish or English.
5. The competition categories are as follows:
 - Category A: 3rd and 4th Classes and Years 5&6 (Northern Ireland) or Special Needs Equivalent
 - Category B: 5th and 6th Classes and Year 7 (Northern Ireland) or Special Needs Equivalent
 - Category C: Whole School
6. ENTRIES MUST BE SENT TO OUR WORLD IRISH AID AWARDS, REAL EVENTS, CATHEDRAL COURT, FUMBALLY LANE, DUBLIN 8, BY 3rd DECEMBER 2010.
7. Each entry must be accompanied by a completed entry form.
8. Any audio visual entries should be a maximum of three minutes long.
9. Entries cannot be returned under any circumstances.
10. Entries that are three-dimensional or fragile should be submitted as photographs, as we cannot accept the physical pieces themselves. Two-dimensional work should be no longer than A2 when compact. If necessary, arrangements will be made to collect pieces, if needed for the exhibition and awards ceremony.
11. The awards are as follows:
 - Schools which enter projects which have consistently shown an understanding of the subject and creativity will receive an 'Our World Irish Aid Awards' plaque.
 - Ten to fifteen projects (from categories A,B, and C) that have shown an excellent understanding of the issues will be invited to an awards ceremony in Dublin to receive and award.
 - One additional entry which has been judged to be outstanding will also be invited to attend the ceremony and will receive the 'Our World Irish Aid Awards' trophy.

Rules & Regulations

1. The judges and the sponsors will not enter into correspondence with regard to judges' decisions, and the decision of the judges in all the competition entry categories will be final.
2. Real Events and Irish Aid cannot accept responsibility for lost, damaged or delayed entries. Proof of posting is not proof of receipt.
3. Employees, contractors or persons directly or professionally associated with employees of Real Events or Irish Aid may not enter this competition.
4. It is imperative that all entries must be pupils' original work and not plagiarised wholly or in part.
5. Short-listed entrants may be asked to provide proof of age and to confirm the authenticity of their entry.
6. All entrants agree to be bound by the rules of the competition; failure on the part of any entrant to adhere to any or all of these rules will render the entry in question invalid.
7. Schools that have been successful in receiving a prize in addition to a plaque will be notified in January 2010. Plaques will arrive in schools shortly thereafter.
8. Prize winners invited to the exhibition and awards ceremony must be accompanied by a parent, teacher or guardian.
9. Prize-winners may be required to participate in publicity (photographs, interview, quotations etc.)
10. The promoters reserve the right to change prize specifications subject to availability at conclusion of these awards. No cash or alternative in whole or part of the prize will be offered.
11. By entering these awards copyright of all original material is retained by the author.
12. In the case of a class/whole school entry, a restricted number of participants will be able to attend the awards ceremony. Each school will be notified of the amount should they progress to that stage.
13. The promoter of the Awards and to whom all correspondence should be addressed to is Our World Irish Aid Awards, Real Events, Cathedral Court, Fumbally Lane, Dublin 8.
