

This logo won the competition to represent the project. It was later painted by students from both partner schools during the Immersion visit.

